

To whom it may concern

Rob Lewis Electrician

I have used Rob's services on a number of occasions for both interior and exterior work. I have been very satisfied with the level of work carried out and the manner in which it was undertaken.

I would have no hesitation in recommending Rob Lewis to anyone either commercial or domestic, who needs the services of a professional and reliable electrician.

If you require any other further information please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours faithfully
